

OLMSTED DATES AND DATA

Meeting people as volunteers another way to make friends

A new group has arrived in town.

It's new to our area, but not in years.

Single Volunteers is a social organization for those 21 and older that provides a relaxed environment in which to meet others while supporting various community groups through volunteering. Let's say it's an alternative way for singles to meet. And a way to change, even in a small way, the world which we share.

It offers a variety of volunteer opportunities to choose from along with social events. Some of the volunteering include St. Augustine's Hunger Center, Coats for Kids, Cleveland Public Theatre, Paul Cassidy Theatre, Ronald McDonald House, various food banks and health center, plus others.

The group will meet at Olmsted Community Church. Its first meeting there is at 7 p.m. Feb. 20. Why not attend to discuss new volunteer projects and make new friends.

For more details about the group, go to its Web site, svohio.org or contact Debbie, dk3330@hotmail.com or (216) 534-7024.

CHICKEN FEAST — Dine out Feb. 23 at the annual Olmsted Falls High Swim and Dive

Joanne Berger
DuMound

Mary of the Falls Community Room Sister Jane Reisinger will be the guest speaker.

Call Judy Stassenko, (440) 235-2222, Ext. 122 for reservations not later than Feb. 19.

BOOK IT — The Olmsted Falls Library has several upcoming programs.

Toddler story times are from 10-10:20 a.m. Mondays and 6:30-6:50 p.m. Wednesdays this month. Children 19-35 months and their caregivers are invited for a program of rhymes, songs, finger play and stories.

Infants through 18 months and their caregivers are invited from 6:30-6:50 p.m. Tuesdays for similar songs and fun.

Youngsters ages 3-7 will hear a short tale or two and make a quick craft from 6:30-7 p.m. today and Feb. 11. Register at (440) 235-1150.

Preschool story time for 3-year-olds and their caregivers run from 10-10:30 a.m. each Friday this month.

Preschool story time for 4 and 5-year-olds who are not in kindergarten are 1:30-2 p.m.

Single volunteers set next meeting at Olmsted Falls church

The Single Volunteers of Northeast Ohio have moved their monthly meetings to a new location — the Olmsted Community Church, 7853

Main St., Olmsted Falls. The first meeting at this new location will be at 7 p.m. Feb. 20.

Come to discuss new volunteer projects and make new friends. Meetings are open to everyone, even if you're just curious about the group. Bring a snack to share if you like (but not required). Beverages and good company provided by the group.

If you have questions about the Single Volunteers of Northeast Ohio, visit svohio.org or e-mail Debbie at dk3330@hotmail.com or call her at (216) 534-7024.